NEXT FOR THE NETWORK

2016 – 2018 Strategic Plan

Throughout 2015, the Domestic Violence Network completed a highly collaborative and inclusive strategic planning process to guide the organization's efforts for the next three years. Anchored by a vision to challenge cultural norms about domestic violence in Central Indiana, four key priorities emerged:

1. Strengthen a network that focuses on training, awareness, intervention support, and prevention education to challenge and change cultural norms.
2. Align the Domestic Violence Network's staff and Board roles to strengthen, refine, and expand the Network.
3. Improve internal and external communication to increase understanding of what the Domestic Violence Network does and why it is important.
4. Develop a culture of relationship cultivation with the community to increase revenue and sustainability.

For more details or a copy of the Domestic Violence Network's complete 2016-2018 Strategic Plan, contact Executive Director Kelly McBride at kmcbride@dvconnect.org.

Community Wide Plan

In 2017, DVN will facilitate the newest community wide plan: Intersections: Engage, Collaborate, Transform. Over the next three years, DVN will examine risk and protective factors and how they intersect with other social issues. The Domestic Violence Network's goal is to educate the community on domestic violence and the intersection with the following risk and protective factors:

The Intersection of ECONOMICS and Domestic Violence

The Intersection of EDUCATION and Domestic Violence

The Intersection of CHILDHOOD EXPERIENCES and Domestic Violence

The Intersection of SUBSTANCE ABUSE and Domestic Violence

The Intersection of MENTAL HEALTH and Domestic Violence

The Intersection of SUICIDE and Domestic Violence

By working together and expanding our knowledge of the correlation between risk and protective factors with those who experience abuse, the community will be better equipped to prevent and respond to domestic violence today, tomorrow and for years to come.
